BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Historic team performances for the Ole Miss men and women at the recent Southeastern Conference Indoor Track & Field Championships have resulted in a number of individual accolades for the Rebels.

A whopping 15 Ole Miss athletes have earned SEC honors, with seven Rebels named All-SEC first team, six making the second team and two making the All-Freshman squad.

First-team honors went to individual or relay event champions, while second-team accolades were given to individuals and relay members who finished second or third at the SEC indoor meet. All-Freshman status was bestowed on the top freshman finisher in each individual event.

Here are the Ole Miss honorees:

Men's All-SEC First Team

Nick DeRay (distance medley relay champion)

Robert Domanic (distance medley relay champion, mile third place)

Craig Engels (distance medley relay champion, 800m third place)

MJ Erb (5000m champion, 3000m runner-up)

Sean Tobin (mile champion, distance medley relay champion)
